

Christianity - In Summary

Christians have problems talking about us non-christians as being evil and controlled by Satan, but they scream Christian persecution every time someone like me tells the truth about their religion. They can say I'm condemned to burn in Hell because I'm a filthy sinner, but I'm not supposed to say Christianity is a dangerous mind cult that leads to delusional behavior. It's ok for them to envision a world rid of the non-Christian heathens, but I'm not supposed to envision a world where people have figured out what a stupid belief system Christianity is, and it goes away like the belief that the world is flat went away.

My religion supports free speech and the free exchange of ideas. As I said, even though I believe that Christianity is a cult, people have the freedom to be part of that cult. But I'm tired of being shoved around by Christian bigots who would oppress my freedom to talk about reality the way it really is. Christianity sucks. It's a piss poor religion, and I'm tired of dealing with these in-your-face assholes who mistakenly believe that they are God's chosen people.
