

Knight

A Realist who stands up for reality in the face of adversity or personal risk. Often reality requires bravery in order to stand up to what is right and true. It is often not easy and can be dangerous to expose exploiters and free their flock from a life of mental slavery.