

Other Trademarks

Besides our registered trademark, the Church of Reality has other trademarks that are non-registered.

- The capital letter "R" with a halo over it is our Sacred Symbol that identifies our church. It symbolizes that Reality is Holy to us.

- We claim the phrase, "If it's real - we believe in it!"

- All words and phrases defined in our Terminology section not used in common language as our trademarks.

- All words and phrases defined in our Terminology section used in common language, but not commonly used in the context of religion as our trademarks if used in the context of religion.

This list should not be construed to be all inclusive of everything we might claim as our trademarks. If anyone has any questions about trademark issues they should contact us.
