

Abortion is not Immoral

The Church of Reality does not in any way declare that abortion is wrong or immoral. We do not look at it as if it is a sin that we tolerate, or assign any negative connotation to. At worst, it might be a sign to try better birth control, but other than that, we do not even impose the burden of sin, shame, guilt, judgment, or acceptance as an immoral act. Abortion is not murder as other "fetus fetish" religions would have you believe. It is not how God punishes women for promiscuity.
