Article 11 - Due Process of Law

- Everyone charged with a penal offence	has the right to be presume	ed innocent until proved	guilty according to law in a public trial at which he has had all the gua	arantees necessary for his c	defence.

- No one shall be held guilty of any penal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.
