

Vocabulary of Reality

The Vocabulary of Reality is the {In:Terminology} that we have developed to explain the new concepts of the Church of Reality. Our religion has broken new ground and developed new concepts in religious philosophy. In order to describe our world view we have had to develop new words to describe our new concepts.

The Church of Reality has concepts found in no other religion. Many of the concepts are complex and it requires new words to describe these concepts. Once you {In:Accept the Truth} there is a learning curve to understand the {In:Kernel}. Our vocabulary isn't that difficult but it is worth the time to read through it and learn it.