Cheating

Cheating in the Church of Reality refers to a dishonest argument or kind of behavior where a person expects a shortcut or pass when none is deserved. Examples of cheating include:

- Absolution from Sin There is no deity that is going to clean up after you and expunge your {In:Karmic Record}.
- God did it The argument that anything that can't yet be explained scientifically is the work of a deity.
- God told me to do it Can't blame your actions on the deity or enhance something that you accomplished by inferring an alliance with a deity.
- Definition Twisting In order to explain away contradictions definitions of words are twisted and switched. An example would be "Maybe God means the universe and the universe exists, therefore God exists.
- Credit but not Blame If God saved someone from the plane crash, then why did he allow the plane to crash in the first place?
